ICIAER - 19

SAHYADRI VALLEY COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY and TECHOWN hosting the International Conference on Innovative & Advanced Engineering Research (ICIAER-2019) to be held on 18th - 19th October, 2019 in Pune, Maharashtra. ICIAER - 19 Conference, provides a great platform for the people who are enthusiastic at sharing their innovative ideas related to technology and provide an excellent international forum for sharing knowledge and their results in theories, technical thesis as a part of their research and elaborate their excellence with various dignitaries, multinational companies and gain the precious suggestions from real time industries, methodology and Applications of Computing. We are pleased to invite you to submit your paper for presentation at this conference in oral. You are also possible to propose a special session in this conference.

ABOUT SVCET

SVCET is established in the year 2011 under the dedicated efforts of the Maharia Charitable Trust, Mumbai, which is the governing body formed in 2001, with an intention to promote and provide technical education in the remote areas of Maharashtra. The main motto of the trustees of Maharia Charitable Trust is to carve the youth as competent, dynamic, valued and enlightened professionals who shall become instruments in the nation building process in the 21st century. Our nation today needs a balanced and sustainable growth with better facility of technical education to be provided at remote areas. Maharia Charitable Trust is dedicated to full fill this aim.

ABOUT TECHOWN

TECHOWN is one of the largest professional research association meant for innovative and technical development in the field of management, education, engineering and technology. Since, it is a professional association that aims to contribute towards the rapid development and research in the various fields. The institution conducts technical seminars, conferences and workshops. TECHOWN helps the researchers free of cost by providing right direction in their innovative and technical research with the help of its highly educated committee member all around the world. TECHOWN will publish the research article in the high quality peer reviewed journals and proceedings. TECHOWN might be best seen as an alliance of distinguished scholarly communities.
